Today, the only thing of which I am certain is that I am afraid of both my future and my past.

I need to remember Sunday. If I talked to Howard Hughes face to face, I need to remember every second of our conversation. Only a handful of people in the world has had that privilege. To most, Hughes exists as an old film clip, or as a fifteen-year-old photo on the front page of The Las Vegas Sun. The thought that I might have seen him in person, without retaining the slightest memory of it, may be
